In the fall of 1863 Lincoln gave the Gettysburg Address, in which he announced a new birth of freedom that depended on liberty for all people. These two documents, in addition to some much needed victories by the North, helped Lincoln negotiate a solution that balanced the border state slaves, prevented foreign intervention, and preserved the Union.

And Lincoln included "under God" in all three copies of the address he prepared at later dates. "Under God" pointed backward and forward: back to "this nation", which drew its breath from both political and religious sources, but also forward to a "new birth". Lincoln had come to see the Civil War as a ritual of

~~Gettysburg Address - Wikipedia~~

Lincoln used the opportunity to write a brief yet thoughtful speech. With the Civil War in its third year the nation was enduring a staggering cost in human life, and Lincoln felt compelled to offer a moral justification for the war. He deftly connected the founding of the nation with the war to keep it united, called for a "new birth of freedom," and ended by expressing his ideal vision for the American government.
