The gratuitous billing

of Beware the Past —

by the author herself —

as a “gripping” UK

crime thriller with “a huge twist” grabbed

my attention. In the setting of this novel really adds a sense of desolation and eeriness to the read.

The characters were believable but I didn't really care about them or their fate, beyond wanting the good guys to win and the bad guys to lose.

Beware the Past is a good novel, well-
written, but not one I
would rush to recommend because I
