to death. This field of psychology is studied by developmental psychologists. They view development as a lifelong process that can be studied scientifically across three developmental domains: physical, cognitive development, and psychosocial.

What Is Lifespan Development? |
Introduction to Psychology

Aims of the course: Psychology 340 is a survey course in human development. It takes a life-span perspective, which means we're trying to cover prenatal development, infancy, toddlerhood, early childhood, middle childhood, adolescence, and the various periods of adulthood--all in one 3-hour course.
